

1. (Product Mix): High-margin concentration exists in "Set" and "Kurta" apparel lines, which account for over 65% of absolute revenue. Stock levels must scale linearly with these high-velocity segments.
2. (Logistics Pipeline): Amazon-fulfilled orders yield significantly lower operational cancellation metrics compared to self-managed Merchant shipping routes, identifying Fulfilled by Amazon (FBA) as the primary driver of successful completions.
3. (Regional Footprint): Geographic distribution is heavily skewed toward Tier-1 clusters (specifically Maharashtra and Karnataka). Regionalized customer retention programs should focus ad spend within these major hubs.
